

BENEFICIARY DESIGNATION FORM

Selecting a Beneficiary

A beneficiary can be an individual, an institution, an organization, a trust, or your estate. Beneficiaries can also be the children of the beneficiaries that you designate on this form. You can choose primary and contingent beneficiaries. Your primary beneficiary(ies) receives benefits at the time of your death. If a class includes more than one person, the benefits are paid proportionately among the living beneficiaries of the class unless you specify otherwise. If there are no living primary beneficiaries at the time of your death and you did not select the child provision option, the benefits will become payable to your contingent beneficiary(ies). If none of the beneficiaries are living at the time of your death, we will close your account after 180 days.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Did you know that incomplete information can make it difficult for us to find your beneficiaries?

To help ensure that your beneficiaries receive their survivor benefits, it's important that we have complete information on file to locate them at all times. This includes each beneficiary's name, address, telephone number, date of birth, Social Security Number or Taxpayer Identification Number and relationship to you and the portion of the benefits to which they are entitled. If you haven't already done so, please update your beneficiary designation with all of this information as soon as possible. And, we also recommend that you review and update your beneficiary information periodically to make sure it continues to be accurate.
